AI Starter Prompts

Writing + Communication

PROMPT - Help me write a short follow-up email to someone who enquired about [your service] but hasn't booked yet. Warm but not pushy. Remind them what the session covers, what the next step is, and how to book. Keep it to 3-4 short paragraphs.

Planning + Mapping

PROMPT 1 - I'm launching [describe your offer] in [timeframe]. I'm working solo with limited time. What are the essential things I need to have in place before I open it? Give me a simple checklist, no more than 12 items, in the order I should tackle them.

PROMPT 2 - I have a lot of things I'm trying to do at once and I'm not sure what to focus on. Here's everything on my plate right now: [list everything - messy is fine]. Help me sort this into: what needs attention this week, what can wait, and what I should probably drop or delegate. I have about [X hours per week] to work on this list.

Content + Socials

PROMPT 1 - Write a 3 sentence Instagram bio for [what you do], for [who you help], based in [your location]. Tone: warm, real, no corporate language. Don't use the words [insert words you don't want]. End with a soft call to action pointing to my links in bio.

PROMPT 2 - Write an Instagram caption about [topic or idea]. My audience is [describe who you're writing for]. The tone should feel like [the tone you want]. Keep it under 150 words. End with a question or a soft invication to book or reach out.

Admin + Day-to-Day

PROMPT 1 - Help me write a simple [cancellation policy/booking policy/FAQ page] for my business. I offer [describe your services]. Key things to include: [list specifics]. Tone: clear and direct but not cold. Written for a solo service business, not a corporate.

PROMPT 2 - Write a short description [my service name] for my booking page or website. The service is [describe what happens, for how long, what it's for]. It's for [who it's for]. Tone: warm and grounded, no hype, no fluffiness. Around 80-100 words.

AI as a Sounding Board

PROMPT 1 - I'm trying to decide between [option A] and [option B]. Here's the context: [explain in a few sentences]. I'm not asking you to decide for me. I want you to help me think it through. Ask me 3-4 questions that would help me get clearer and then reflect back what you're hearing.

PROMPT 2 - I'm planning to [describe your plan or idea]. I want you to play devil's advocate. What are the things I might not have considered? Where could this go wrong? What assumptions am I making that I should test? Be direct, I want honest pushback not reassurance.
