Module Five

Brand Basics

How people feel when they find you. Let's make sure that's intentional.

BUSINESS NAME

Write every option you're considering. Include the one you keep coming back to even when you're not sure.

About each option: Can I say it easily out loud? Does it feel like me? Is it available (chekc ASIC: asic.gov.au)? Will it still fit in three years?

VOICE NOTE EXERCISE - FIND YOUR BRAND VOICE

Describe your business to a friend out loud. Not a pitch - a conversation.
Write down the words you naturally reached for. These are your brand words.

YOUR VISUAL STARTING POINT

2x colours, 1x font, 1 feeling. Enough to be and feel consistent. Not enough to be precious about.

Two Colours

Heading Font

Body Font

One feeling/word

REFLECTION

What does your brand feel like right now and what do you want it to feel like?

RIght now

What I want

The gap